NORRIS HELPS KICK OFF NAOSH WEEK

Terrie S. Norris, CSP, ARM, addressed the Canadian Society of Safety Engineering (CSSE) on May 3, 2010, in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, to help kick off North American Occupational Safety & Health (NAOSH) Week. NAOSH Week is led by the Canadian Society of Safety Engineering (CSSE) in partnership with the Canadian Centre for Occupational Health and Safety (CCOHS) and Human Resources and Skills Development Canada (HRSDC), in concert with the American Society of Safety Engineers (ASSE) and partners in Mexico. Its goal is to focus employers, employees, partners and the public on the importance of preventing injury and illness in the workplace, at home and in the community.

A member of the American Society of Safety Engineers (ASSE) since 1987, Ms. Norris is currently President-Elect of the Society, a position that leads to President in 2011. She has served two terms as the Society's Senior Vice President, Region I Vice President, and as Orange County Chapter President, Treasurer, and Delegate.

With over 20 years of extensive experience protecting people, property, and the environment, Ms. Norris is a recognized leader in risk management and loss control. Her responsibilities as Risk Control Manager at Bickmore Risk Services include providing a wide range of safety and risk management consultative services to public and private entity clients in southern California.
